

REMARKS

In the Advisory Action mailed February 8, 2007 the Examiner continued the rejection of claims 1-48 as not placing the application in condition for allowance.

In response to the Advisory Action, applicant requested a telephone interview with the Examiner, which the Examiner graciously granted on February 21, 2007. Applicant thanks the Examiner and the Examiner's supervisor for the courtesies extended to applicant during the interview.

In response to the rejection in the Advisory Action and as agreed to by the Examiner and the Supervisor, applicant has amended the independent claims 1, 8, 11, 17, 24, 27, 33, 34, 35, 37, 38 and 44 to include the expression, "wherein the copy protected video signal is viewable or watchable," to help distinguish applicant's copy protection concept from a scrambling/descrambling concept.

Accordingly, it is respectfully submitted that the claims 1-48 are now in condition for allowance, which action is earnestly solicited.

If there are any questions about this paper or the associated application, please contact the undersigned at the telephone number given below. If it is determined that a telephone conference would expedite the prosecution of this application, the Examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned at the number given below.

Please charge any required fees due to this amendment to Deposit Account No. 13-0762.

Respectfully submitted,

MACROVISION CORPORATION
